COUNCIL FIXES DATE FOR MAY CARNIVAL

Thursday, May 3, Time of Big Festival—Earle Manson in Charge.

O. K. HONOR CONSTITUTION

Many Revisions Made Over Old Document—To Elect Pub Leader Next.

Thursday, May 3rd, was definitely fixed as the night to hold the big May Fete Carnival at the Student Council meeting, March 20. Earle Manson was placed in charge of the committee on arrangements. Besides deciding on the May Fete Carnival, the council adopted the honor constitution.

Rauscher's City Club, Raleigh, and Willard are all being considered as places to hold the big festival, according to advices from Earle Manson.

Stanley Wright, president of the council, announced that election of editors and business managers of the publication would probably be taken up at the next meeting, on April 3rd.

Without a dissenting vote the council adopted the revised honor constitution, which was reported by Miss Mabelle Bennett, chairman of the committee, which redrafted last year's document after it failed of adoption by the faculty. The new instrument had been shortened a great deal. The constitution as adopted by council follows:

THE HONOR CONSTITUTION.

Article I.

Section 1. The honor system under this constitution is defined as placing the responsibility of promoting a standard of honesty in the University primarily upon the student body.

Section 2. The honor system shall become effective in the Department of Arts and Sciences of George Washington University from the date of the approval of this constitution by the faculty and by a majority of all registered students. The vote of the student body shall be taken through the registrar's office.

Article II.

Section 1. There shall be an honor committee composed of the presidents of the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes of Columbian College, of the College of Engineering, and Teachers College. This committee shall be empowered to add to its number one member from the School of Graduate Studies. The committee shall elect its chairman from its own members.

Article III.

Section 1. It shall be the duty of every student to inform the chairman of the honor committee of any case on which he thinks the principles of the honor system have been violated.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the committee to call before it the accused to investigate the situation.

Section 3. In case of conviction, the honor committee shall recommend the penalty to be imposed to the faculty through the Dean of the College or School in which each offender is registered.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the honor committee to promote a system of mutual responsibility among the students for honest scholastic work.

Article IV.

Section 1. Violations of the honor system shall consist of receiving in any way or giving in any way, unauthorized aid for any examination or written recitation given in any course of the Department of Arts and Sciences.

Article V.

Section 1. This constitution may be amended by a three-fourths vote of the Student Council, provided that the amendment is approved by the faculty and the student body.

Section 2. The operation of this constitution may be terminated at any time by action of the Faculty or of the Student Council.

Mulligan—Gosnell Named Leaders

"Charlie" Has Played Guard for the Last Three Years—Gosnell, Veteran Forward of Two Seasons—Both Competent to Command.

Charles S. Mulligan and Clarence W. Gosnell have been selected to lead G. W.'s football and basketball teams next year. At an annual Athletic Banquet held at the Madrillon Restaurant, on Friday evening, March 16, these men were honored with captaincies, and a gay, festive time was indulged in by the football and basketball players.

Mulligan has been varsity guard on the eleven for the past three years and has developed into a capable player. He has all the qualities of a good leader and should make a successful captain. Mulligan succeeds V. James Ptak, who led the 1922 gridiron team.

"Goody" Gosnell is to pilot the basketball team next winter, and fully deserves the honor given him. He has played forward on the Hatchette "five" for the past two seasons, and was captain of a championship team at Tech. High before entering G. W. Gosnell takes up the reins left by John R. Daily.

Bryan Morse, Coach Quigley, and Daniel L. Borden also attended the banquet and rendered some very interesting speeches.

Letters and sweaters for both teams will be presented at a formal affair to be given in the early part of April, according to an announcement made by Managers McNeil and Bettleheim.

DISCUSS PHILOSOPHY OF ANATOLE FRANCE

The special feature of the meeting of the Eosinian Society on Monday evening last was an address by Mr. Fagan on Anatole France. The discussion of the evening was based on modern Romance authors and their works. Mr. Fagan presented his own interpretation of the style and philosophy of Mr. France in a most engaging and compelling manner.

Before the discussion of the topic of the meeting was entered upon Meadow Wright presented a short talk on Byron and some readings from his poems.

Mr. Baker was kind enough to read some of his original poems, which are always enjoyable, and a translation of a poem from Spanish was given by one of the members. The president then spoke on the general topic assigned.

The society is at work in earnest this spring.

PLANS FOR SIGMA TAU BANQUET COMPLETED

Plans for the annual banquet of Sigma Tau, Honorary Engineering Fraternity, are nearing completion. The date has been set for April 18th, and according to the members, it will be the biggest affair ever given by the fraternity. President Hodgkins and Dean Miller will be present at the banquet, and the following new officers will be installed: President, Robert Brauner; vice president, Joseph H. Laphis; recording secretary, Lawrence K. Hyde, corresponding secretary, Daniel B. Lloyd; historian, John Elisinger; treasurer, Robert Wendt.

SHIP SUBSIDY SUBJECT OF SWARTHMORE DEBATE

The girls debating team will meet Swarthmore at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium to-night on the subject of the much mooted "Ship Subsidy Bill." G. W. will uphold the negative side of the question and the team will consist of Clara Cain, president of the Law Senate, Sarah Hankin and Mrs. Yates. The student body of the University is urged to be present.

MASON'S DANCE SUCCESS.

Last Tuesday night the much proclaimed Masonic Club dance was held at Meridian Mansions, 2400 Sixteenth Street. Meyer Davis furnished the jazz music that helped dispel the cares and worries of a material world and lifted everyone into a dancing fairland. Not a gloomy face appeared to cloud the laughing atmosphere of this joyous crowd.

TO DEBATE KU KLUX KLAN

"Resolved, That the Ku Klux Klan is a constructive organization," is the question to be debated by the Columbian Debating Society at the Law School, 1433 K Street, on Friday night, March 23, at 8 p. m.

Two good teams have been selected, and a furious thrash-out of the merits of this much-talked-of organization may be expected.

"PROSPECTS BRIGHT" SAYS COACH MILLER

Twenty Candidates Report to Practice on Dumbarton Club Courts—Play C. U.

"The prospects are bright and encouraging for an unusually successful season in tennis," is the cheerful report from Dean Miller, who is coaching the tennis squad this year. There will be some snappy, well-played matches here this spring, the first being with Columbia, probably the hardest opponent.

It is a certainty that Catholic University will be played, although the date has not yet been definitely settled.

Twenty enthusiastic candidates of promising ability have to date reported, all eager to get back into the game. Ten of these have for some time been practicing on concrete courts, while a few have been playing indoor during the winter and are in mid-season form at present.

The Dumbarton courts have been secured definitely for practice and games.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR PLANNED BY PAN-HEL

Novel Programs and Favors Promised—Good Music Secured.

Pan-Hellenic holds its Prom at Wardman Park, April 12th, nine until one. All Greek letter sorority girls not in George Washington chapters, but affiliated with the association, are cordially invited to attend, and may obtain tickets from Mary Ruthven, secretary of Pan-Hellenic, for the nominal fee of three dollars.

Meyer Davis' Orchestra has been engaged, and with the added attraction of novel programs and favors, this dance promises to be one of exceptional brilliancy.

W. U. C. ANNUAL ELECTION WILL BE HELD APRIL 5

The annual election of officers of the Women's University Club will be held Thursday, April 5th, at the W. U. C. rooms, 2027 G Street.

Only active members; that is, members who have paid the yearly dues of fifty cents, are eligible to vote or to hold office.

Dues are payable to the secretary, Anne Hof, 1831 Belmont Road, not later than April 3rd, 1928.

PROMPT TAX PAYMENT NECESSARY FOR TREE

Delivery of the 1923 Cherry Tree will not be guaranteed by the year-book management if both the first and second installments of the tax are not paid by the 30th of March, according to Robert H. McNeil, business manager. On account of the few signers of the tax this year the funds have of necessity been cut so that only a limited number of copies can be ordered.

Those not signers of the tax, desiring a copy of the Cherry Tree, may subscribe for a copy by seeing either the business manager, Robert H. McNeil, or the circulation manager, Henry H. James. Orders may also be left in the office. The price is five dollars, payable in advance.

PROF. CROISSANT TALKS ON "ACCURSED SPELLING"

DeWitt C. Croissant, Ph. D., professor of English in George Washington University, addressed the College Women's Club on Monday afternoon, March 12, on the subject, "Our Accursed Spelling." Professor Croissant was for several years general field agent of the Simplified Spelling Board, and is now a member of the board. The meeting was under the auspices of Section XIII of the College Women's Club, of which Mrs. Henry Gratton Doyle is leader.

CONTEMPLATE TRIP FOR 'CHARM SCHOOL'

Cancel Arrangements to Give Performance at Garrick During Easter.

PRYOR TAKES LEAD ROLE

Negotiate With Nearby Cities for Bookings—Pennsylvania Trip a Possibility.

The Junior Play will not appear again before a local audience until some later date, which is yet undecided.

On authorization of Mr. Bryan Morse a date was negotiated for performances at the Garrick Theater and all plans were laid for performances on the 26th and 27th of this month. When the completed plan was laid before Mr. Morse, he vetoed it on the grounds that it was too hazardous an undertaking for Holy Week, the worst period of the theatrical season.

However, "The Charm School," having made such a decided success at the first performance, will not be allowed to die, and bookings are being arranged in nearby cities. Henry James, business manager of the play, is busy making arrangements for performances in Alexandria, Annapolis, Frederick, and other cities that can be reached and played in an overnight trip. Funds obtained from these performances will be utilized for a more extensive tour west through Pennsylvania. Plans for this tour are being formulated, and conditions appear favorable. The tour would extend over a period of a week or ten days, with the larger of the small cities included in the itinerary.

Two Changes in Cast Made.

Two changes have been made in the cast, due to the resignation of William Hipkins, from the leading male role. G. Wilfred Pryor has been elevated to the principal role and Osgood Fifield has been placed in the cast position vacated by Pryor.

Although the premier performance proved that the cast is letter-perfect in their respective roles, rehearsals are continuing for the purpose of perfecting the two changes and to keep the other members from becoming lax in their interpretations of the characters they represent.

Co-Directors Satisfied.

According to William S. Becker and Leonard Hall, co-directors of the play, the cast has attained a professional excellence generally foreign to amateur performances, and they express the utmost admiration for the individual work of the cast members. That this work will bring them excellent recognition in the provinces is their expressed conviction.

With the exception of the two cast changes the cast remains intact with Dorothy Bartley as the reason for Beven's loss of the Fairview School and the rest of the cast contributors to the loss.

D. B. LLOYD TO ADDRESS ENGINEERING SOCIETY

The Engineering Society will hold its monthly meeting in Lisner Hall next Wednesday evening, March 28. The meeting will be given over to student speakers.

The students who are scheduled to speak are Daniel B. Lloyd, on the subject of "Designing Bridges for the Modern Railway Locomotive"; and Vaughn L. Johannessen on a subject not yet announced.

Johannessen is speaking in competition for the gold medal to be awarded the best student speaker in the Freshman and Sophomore classes of the Engineering College. This medal is awarded annually by Sigma Tau, the honorary engineering fraternity, as an inducement to students to give talks to the Engineering Society on technical subjects.

POSTPONE "AXE" DANCE

The "Hatchet" dance, the third to be held this year, has been postponed because of the large number of dances planned by other organizations. It is believed to be more desirable to hold the dance on a night when there will be no danger of conflicting with any big school function. Instead of dancing during the Easter holidays, the journalists will celebrate two weeks after.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR TRACK TRAINING

Use "Y" for Dressing Quarters—Weather Conditions Delay Starting Outdoor Practice.

Due to weather conditions it was impossible to begin outdoor track practice March 12, as planned; however, training did begin in earnest last Monday evening, and a number of candidates were on hand when Coach Probe started them on the long grind in preparation for the coming meets.

Arrangements have been made whereby lockers and showers at the Y. M. C. A. may be used by the squad. Track candidates who are not members of the "Y" are to see Manager Tracy at that place at 7 o'clock each evening as they report for training, as he will have complete charge of assigning lockers to them. Members of the "Y" can, of course, use their own lockers.

Due to the fact that time for daily training is limited and will necessarily need to be arranged to accommodate the squad as a whole, training will be held only after the 7 o'clock classes every week-day, except Saturday, near the Lincoln Memorial, and at the Georgetown Athletic Field every Sunday morning from 10 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., weather permitting.

With a place to train, a place to dress, with lockers and showers, and a good coach in "Tom" Probe, it is believed the members of the track squad will do well in the meets in which they are to compete this year.

GAMMA ETA ZETA HOLDS FIRST DINNER

Journalistic Sorority to Take in Ten Columbian College Girls, Members of Subs.

The first initiation service of Gamma Eta Zeta, the women's journalistic sorority, will be held Saturday evening, and will be followed by a dinner at the Restaurant Madrillon. Ten girls of Columbian College will be taken into the sorority.

Dean and Mrs. William Allen Wilbur, Professor and Mrs. DeWitt C. Croissant, and Mrs. Daniel C. Chace will be guests of honor at the dinner.

The sorority first made its appearance at George Washington last April, and has enjoyed a very successful season. Only Juniors and Seniors are eligible to membership; and meritorious work on some school publications, as well as scholarship, are taken into consideration before a prospective member is pledged.

TIME FOR PREPARATION OF ORATION EXTENDED

The time when the orations for the Senior Davis speaking contest may be handed in, has been extended to March 26th.

Henry Temin, Kirk Mears, and Wilmer Bartholomew have entered the contest. This is the first time for some years that girls have not entered.

Any additional contestants should see Professor Croissant.

In the Days to Come

George Washington University, the school of the future, is what every loyal student is looking forward to. Beautiful and inspiring buildings, spacious grounds, pleasant surroundings, all these form the dream that all here are striving to make a reality.

Not long ago the announcement was made that the University would be enlarged and built up on its present location. Glancing around at the shabby neighborhood in this section of the city it was felt in some quarters that this was not the place upon which to erect an everlasting educational monument to the memory of the one whose name it bears.

President Hodgkins recently made a statement, which clearly shows that this is the best and most logical place to build a school of the type of George Washington.

In the years to come magnificent public buildings will take the place of the unsightly structures that stand here now. Potomac Park will stretch from the doors of the University down to Potomac River. Off to the west Rock Creek Park will be extended down to meet the river.

More than this, George Washington University will be a group of imposing white stone buildings clustered around the campus of the future. Then will the students of this school enjoy the real pleasures of college life.

The Faculty Acts

Recent dropping of students for failure in semester examinations has raised an unusual amount of criticism, by the student body, both for and against such action.

This has never been carried out before. For many years past students have been permitted to stay in college even though they were unable to meet the requirements of their classes.

Such laxity as this is sure to lower the educational standards of a school. It must be admitted that George Washington University was beginning to allow this to become prevalent.

The faculty is to be congratulated on the stand it has assumed in this matter. Every student would like to be able to go through college in as easy a way as possible, but it will do him no good to slide through with constant failure in examinations and the everlasting search for so-called "easy" courses.

In after years when the graduate looks back on his college days he will feel much better if he can honestly believe that he really won his diploma.

Not only that, but what good will his time spent here have done him if he was not required to maintain a high average in his studies.

Other colleges make their students keep up in their class work. This University should do the same thing. In this way our graduates will be recognized as men of ability and the school will be looked up to as one of the better universities of this country.

THE SPY

Washington Theater Taste.

Again just the other evening we supported the negative side of an argument regarding a little theater movement in Washington. Our worthy opponent, an intellectual English stage director, held that Washington by virtue of its educated and appreciative population is the logical center for an American movement to raise the American theater to a higher plane of excellence and to educate the Nation to a fine appreciation of the artistic in the theater.

It is a happy thought, and we wish that we might agree with Mr. Blythe, but from the most recent testimony drawn from local theater attendance it appears that Washington not only has not the requisite taste for real theater art, but that it does not even wish to cultivate such a taste.

Within the last few months we were honored by a week's engagement of "Lilliom," that wonderful and beautiful artistic tragedy by Ferenc Molnar. Coming to us with a record of great success both in New York and abroad, and hailed as the finest thing of the decade in the theater. It played to very small audiences in "cultured" Washington where it should have been received in such a manner that a month's run had been imperative and remunerative. But this cultured mob of theater lovers permitted that thing of beauty to starve for their attendance. We can understand the reason; it was written in a language of artistic tragedy that the sentimental public of to-day can not understand without deep thought, a thing which they can not tolerate. So also was fate of "Fashions for Men."

Then we see a local stock company produce "Able's Irish Rose," and break all Washington records with a twelve week run. This is comedy that hits right between the eyes and requires no mental exertion to appreciate the "Subtleties" of the plot and lines. That closes with local theater wisecracks saying that its long run was the result of low prices. Then comes George Marshall to the Belasco with his "Demi-Virgin" and refutes their argument by playing to packed houses at a two dollar top. What does this play offer in the way of culture? Its make-up is essentially lines reeking with risqué phrases, a strip poker game staged by the ladies of the company, and situations meant to appeal to a taste for smut. This play goes into its second week with a much longer run practically assured.

Going back to last summer and the stock season at the Belasco, let us tabulate the plays that ran for more than the usual stock week. We get a list containing "Ladies' Nite In a Turkish Bath," "Getting Gertie's Garter," and "Up In Mabel's Room," all from the pen of that smut artist extraordinary, Avery Hopwood, who has made a fortune from such stuff.

So it does not seem that Washington is ready for an intellectual and artistic little theater group, for surely the local successes do not argue strongly for the intellectuality and high artistic taste of Washington. It would seem rather that the city lacks those elements of appreciation where the theater is concerned. Is then a little theater movement founded upon artistic tenets practical?

Far better to have no little theater at all than to have one which endeavors to satisfy Washington's "artistic" taste by means of such mediums as those which seem to be the only ones with the power to appeal to our local theater-going public.

PHI SIGMA TO DANCE.

Phi Sigma Sorority is going to put over another one of those snappy subscription dances. Everyone remembers what a good time was had by the large crowd that attended the last dance. The girls were so much encouraged by the success of the last party that they are going to stage this next one at a larger place. Therefore this little paragraph is to announce that the next Phi Sigma subscription dance will be held at the Hotel Raleigh on Saturday evening, April 21, with Meyer Davis music. Tickets may be obtained from any of the members of the sorority.

Birmingham-Southern College has introduced the Honor System in its widest sense, according to the Gold and Black. It shall apply to all class work, written reports, and examinations.

All violations will be reported to the Student Senate. This body, after careful consideration of all the evidence for and against the accused, will determine the verdict and mete out punishment. Students will be allowed to appeal to the faculty in case of dissatisfaction.

The Flapper Replies.

If e'er my hair was somewhat mussed,
When from a ride I came,
Recall it might have been a gust
Of wind which was to blame;
And anyway, is my response,
Hone soit qui mal y pense.

You find me off alone with Jim,
With all the lights turned out,
I might just want to talk to him
With no one else about;
And anyway, is my response,
Hone soit qui mal y pense.

I don't get home till half-past three,
(The party stopped at two),
We might have had a blow-out see?
And had to change a shoe;
And anyway, is my response,
Honi soit qui mal y pense.

Getting Out a Paper.

Getting out a paper is no picnic. If we print jokes, some folks say we are silly. If we don't, they say we are too serious. If we publish original matter, they say we lack variety. If we stay on the job, we ought to be out rustling news. If we are rustling news, we are not attending to business at the office. If we don't print contributions, we don't show proper appreciation. If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk. Like as not some fellow will say we swiped this from an exchange. So we did.

LOCAL DEBATERS ARE DEFEATED BY G. W.

Subject of Speeches Delivered on Abolishment of Capital Punishment in United States.

By winning the District of Columbia series of the Intercollegiate Prize Debating Contest last Wednesday Evening, the George Washington University team has qualified for the final forensic contest, composed of winners from other cities. The contest resembles a prize speaking contest, for the reason that the speakers are not pitted against each other, nor are they concerned in refutation, but merely deliver a 10-minute talk on the set subject, which is, "Resolved, That Capital Punishment Should be Abolished in the Several States and the United States."

G. W. team, composed of Philip Barnard and Edward L. Scheuffer, defeated teams from National and American University, Georgetown failing to qualify. The final contest will be held at Wardman Park on March 28th and 29th; and the prize is a year's scholarship to the winner. Milton M. Sommers, who is the alternate on the team, has been entered in the prize speaking contest on March 29th, the subject being of his own selection.

SWIMMERS ORGANIZE

Girls! Your chance to make the girl's swimming team, which is to be entered in the South Atlantic meet, is not yet lost. Beatrice Woodford, coach, is now selecting the girls to make up the team, so there is still some hope for those who are eligible. The list of lucky girls will be announced next week. Watch for your name!

CHEMISTS DANCE

Chemistry sharks abandoned the lab last Thursday evening for Meridian Mansion, 2400 Sixteenth Street, where they showed their ability to follow up jazzy tunes as well as scientific formulae. Meyer Davis furnished the jazz.

Refreshments were served. Credit for the success of the dance goes to E. A. Miller, chairman of the dance committee.

ANNOUNCES COAST GUARD EXAMINATION

For the Benefit of G. W. Students Interested in Engineering.

This is an exceptional opportunity for young men to complete their education at Government expense and to become commissioned officers in the United States Coast Guard, one of the Military Services of the United States, in which is offered service afloat and ashore.

Cadets are trained to become line officers, and the age limits for appointment are 18 to 24 years.

Cadet engineers are trained to become engineer officers, and the age limits for appointment are 20 to 25 years.

Cadets and cadet engineers are trained and educated at the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., and each summer are taken on an extended practice cruise.

Cadets and cadet engineers receive the same pay and allowances as midshipmen in the Navy ($780 per annum).

Upon graduation, after three years at the Academy, a cadet becomes a commissioned officer in the grade of Ensign in the United States Coast Guard. A cadet engineer, upon graduation, after one year at the Academy, is commissioned an Ensign (engineering). Commissioned officers of the Coast Guard rank with officers in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, and receive corresponding pay and allowances, grade for grade.

The opportunity this year is particularly favorable, as there are an unusually large number of vacancies. All existing vacancies will be filled this year if possible. Successful candidates will report at the Academy about three weeks after the close of the examination. For further particulars write to the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C.

Stupid Steve's Kolum

Hear'y, hear ye, hark ye, dumbells, and others. Stupid Stephen will offer a prize of one dollar ($1.00), one bone, one plunk, in cold cash for the best joke or pun every week from now on. Stupid Steve is to be the judge of the jokes since he is putting up the money. Since it will not be possible for him to seek out the winner personally and pay him or mail a check lest his identity be revealed (he is very modest and retiring), he has designated Mr. Ronald Marquis, in the Registrar's office, who will pay the dollar to the winner every week or his order. All inquiries should be addressed personally to Stupid Stephen, of the Hatchet, and must arrive by Monday night at 9 p. m., to be considered. The winner's name will be published every week.

We don't know any new or interesting scandal, as we haven't been out with any of the Alpha Delta Pi's recently.

Answers to Korrespondents.

Dear Stupid Stephen:
I am a Freshman in the Medical School. After consulting some of the sympathetic gin one night after I had retired, I saw pink kangaroos. Can you give me an explanation.

Yours truly,
(Name Deleted by the Editor.)
Dear Deleted:
The explanation is that they were probably just ordinary kangaroos with pink pajamas on.

P. S.—That's the kangaroos pajamas.
Steve.
Stupe.

Dear Mr. Stephen:
I am a student in the Law School. I often find it difficult to stay awake in class. I will be sitting in class and the first thing I know I will wake up. This worries me. What would you do about it?

Yours sincerely,
Sleepie I. Stewart.

Dear Mr. Stewart:
Register up for some of Mr. Edgerton's work and you won't be worried by waking up.

The reason we had Marquis designated to pay the dollar is because he is the next stupidest person we know of.

We understand Gate and Key is having a hard time to decide whether or not to buy pins. Some of the members say the organization ain't worth it. We suggest they buy a key. The faculty seems inclined to give 'em the gate.

Bill Collector: "Does Mr. Norcross, a student, live here?"

The reason Foster Hagan got away with the part of the jealous lover so well is because he has often appeared in that role.

INDUSTRIAL COURTS DEBATE TO PITTSBURG

Affirmative Team Awarded Two-to-One Decision by Prominent Judges.

Last Friday evening the G. W. debaters met defeat at the hands of the University of Pittsburgh team, at the Central High School Auditorium on the subject of, "Resolved, That the United States and the Several States Establish Industrial Courts Analogous in Principle to the Kansas Industrial Court." The G. W. team unholding the negative was composed of Charles I. Haycraft, Franklin Knock, and Edward L. Scheuffer. The subject was hotly contested, as the decision of the judges would indicate, their vote being two in favor of the winner and one in favor of G. W.

The judges were Senator William H. King, of Utah, Justice Orion M. Barber, and Federal Trade Commissioner Nelson B. Gaskill.

TO TELL OF HIGHEST R. R.

The Civil Engineers and the Architectural Club will hold a joint meeting in Lisner Hall at 8 o'clock on Monday, March 26, 1923. The speaker of the evening will be W. E. Beyer, assistant municipal architect of the District, who will deliver an illustrated lecture on "The Highest Railroad in the World." Refreshments will be served by the Architectural Club girls after the lecture.

Father Ladd: "Where were you last night, young man?"

Mickey: "Just down at the frat house. Some of the boys wanted me to help them out with their lesson, etc., etc."

Father Ladd: "Then where did those hairpins, etc., in the back of the car come from?"

Y. W. ELECTS OFFICERS; JOINT PARTY PLANNED

To Take Charge of Monday Chapel—
Honor Advisory Committee
With Tea.

Officers were elected for the coming year, and social plans for the next month were made at meeting of the Y. W. C. A. Monday, March 19, after chapel.

Officers elected were as follows: President, Isabel Bunten; vice president, Muriel Hoage; secretary, June Cooper; treasurer, Edna Veley; undergraduate representative to the Egglesmere Y. W. Conference, Katherine Lacey.

Plans for a tea in honor of the advisory committee of the "Y," to be held in the very near future, were placed in the charge of Roberta Chapman. Those on the committee are Mrs. Harry Hull, Dean Rose, Miss Kincaannon, Mrs. Merton L. Ferson, Mrs. W. C. Ruediger, Mrs. Van Vleck, Miss Ida Johnson; honorary members, President Hodgkins and Dean Miller.

Plans were also made for a party in honor of the girls of Goucher and Maryland State, to be given about the middle of April; and the fact was announced that the W. U. C. had relinquished charge of the Monday Chapel Service to the Y. W., and that there would be a meeting of the Y. W. each Monday after chapel.

KAPPA TAU OMEGA DANCE ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY

St. Patrick's Day! Just another day to break away from the cares and worries of school and enter into the realms of make-believe and romance.

Dancing couples moving through the dimly lighted rooms of Kappa Tau Omega house had left all earthly cares behind to participate in the fun and merriment of an exceedingly jolly crowd.

Favors given to the girls contributed to the noise of the evening while the boys were given green shamrocks to refresh their memory as the reason for this happy assemblage.

CONTINUES GOOD SCORES.

The good shooting done by G. W. riflemen in the first stage of the intercollegiate Association Championships was continued in the second stage, completed this week. With only the final standing-prone stage of the match to be fired, the chances of a G. W. victory seem particularly strong.

	Kneeling.	Prone.	Total.
Stokes	97	100	197
Smith	97	100	197
Anadale	95	99	194
Riley	95	99	194

Barry	93	100	193

PLANS ARE COMPLETE FOR SPRING PLAYS

James Smithwick, Sara Fry, and Louise Bannerman Cast in Leading Parts.

Plans have been further developed for the spring presentation of the G. W. Players, according to Dorothea Stevens, president of the association. Casts for the three plays will be announced in their entirety very soon, and the cast of "Where but in America" has already been decided upon.

James Smithwick will take the part of the husband in this one-act play, while Sara Fry will be his wife. Hilda the Swedish maid, will be played by Louise Bannerman. The cast and the director, Annette Steele, are the best possible, and are sure to make a fine presentation.

The other plays, "Suppressed Desires," and "Moonshine," are short and amusing sketches, which are guaranteed to afford a pleasant evening. The casts have not yet been chosen, as competition is very keen.

THE TEA-HOUND

Well, here we are, taking up a job that somebody else had sense enough to give up after two or three weeks. One reason we are taking up this hazardous position is that the editor needs lots and lots of copy at this time. And that's that. Well, here goes.

Bumped into Bill Becker, and he told us all about some big plans to take his Charm School on the road. Hopes to get as far as Alexandria and perhaps take a jaunt around Pennsylvania. Success to you, Bill.

Wonder why Orion Lake hangs around the Hatchet office so much. As Grape Nuts says, "There's a reason."

Coming to school this morning was met by a pretty girl carrying a milk-bottle. Was asked to contribute our pennies. Not having any, we were forced to part with a whole nickel. It's going some when begging is a requirement to get into a sorority. Now isn't it.

Spring is here all right. It has even struck one of the Deans, who has postponed a 7 o'clock class to 9 o'clock in order to play tennis.

The other day we counted 57 cars parked in front of school. Now we hear some one saying why bother us with uninteresting and inanimate statistics. But some of these cars are not inanimate, if you get what we mean. Why, just the other day—, but that's telling.

Have you ever noticed the harassed look on Joe Palmer's countenance? It's from worrying about different organizations, turning in information on time.

Dropped by the Medical School yesterday. They won't talk about a thing, except how hard they study. Having one of their classmates elected captain of football didn't phase them. Nothing phases them, not even an attempted suicide.

Saw Tom Davis and Ruth McKelway.

Walked between Thirteenth and Fourteenth on F Street and recognized fourteen G. W. students. Who said we didn't have a campus, anyway.

Grace Harris, Frances Foster, Elizabeth Dorsey, Dick McPherson, Red Wallace, and several others were seen playing a new game over on the concrete recently. It's played with a large rubber ball. How about a tournament?

SPORT NOTES

Yale won leading honors in the intercollegiate basketball league, and has received the trophy from Princeton, who won the title last year. Princeton and Cornell tied for second, Columbia was third, Dartmouth and Pennsylvania were last.

Several changes are slated for the basketball rules next year. The player fouled will make the free throw, the seventeen-foot mark will be done away with, and two shots given man who was fouled in act of shooting, and a new zone marked off 10 feet on each side of center circle, to be occupied only by the two centers until ball has been tapped. These changes have not been definitely decided upon, but in all probability they will be passed by the rules committee.

G. W.'s Freshmen basketball team should have a slight share of the many honors Eastern High has been winning. The Hatchette cubs defeated the champions 26 to 19 in a game played in the early part of the season.

"Jack" Dally has just concluded a successful stay at G. W., from both an academic and athletic standpoint. He has received many honors for good school work and rendered some valuable service to his school as an athlete.

Penn's Relay Carnival is to have wonderful success judging from the number of entries that have been coming in. Eighty-seven colleges and 329 schools have entered to date, and the entries are expected to go over the 500 mark by April 1, when they close. Teams from England, Canada, and all sections of the United States are to run.

Engineering students at G. W. are showing the right spirit by organizing a baseball team. If they are successful it will show the practicability of having a representative team next year.

Cornell had 28 hockey teams and sixty basketball teams playing a regular schedule during the past season.

PI BETA PHI COLLECTS

Pi Beta Phi is up and doing. As I came to school Wednesday morning there was a cry going round the campus: "Have you any pennies?" The nine "goats" of this sorority were circulating about the campus with pint milk bottles and collecting any and all small contributions.

The money is to go to the Gatlen Settlement House, Gatlen, Tenn.

These collections were made Wednesday morning only, so there is no further fear of any more pennies being "lost" in this way.
